THE SCITAN'S WIVES .- The following affair, which has lately occured at Constantinople. has reated great sensation there

A young Austrian, a gold beater by trade, riding out a few Sundays ago, when the char riding out a few Sundays ago, when he chanced to meet the Sultan's wives, escorted by a number of cuncts. The young Austrian, having cast a glance of a somewhat inquisitive character into the carriage which the fait lattice occupied, was daugged from his horse by the cunchs, and handled with such severity that he was carried handred with such steerly that he was corrections had deed, and still lives suffering from the effects of his wounds. The Sultan, having been made aquainted with the facts by remonstrances proceeded from the Austrian embassy, caused a strict inquiry to be instituted, the result of which was, that two of the cumules were sentenced to five years labor at the galleys, while seven other individuals were sentenced to receive fifty stripes. The whole of the rest were dismissed from the palace. The Sultan then sent his physician to parace. The Safeth hea sent has physician to express his sorrow to the wounded man, with assurance that the whole expenses of his cure would be defrayed from his privy purse, and that his wife and family would be cared for in future, in the event of his being incapacitated by his wounds from following his former pursuits.

TPLEGRAPHING THE MESSAGE .- The Madison rga, and Democrat says:

It appears that the only papers west of Detroit to which the Message was telegraphed were the Scattinel and the Argus & Democrat. Citizens of Madison read the Message a day or two in ad-vance of its publication in Chicago!

We believe that our Chicago contemporaries were indebted for their first copies of the Message to the Sentinel extra. It was published by s in Milwaukee on the afternoon of New Year's Day, and in the Chicago papers of Thursday following the 3rd instant.

WESTERN SECURITIES .- The New York Tri bune of Thursday, in its money article, says: We have made diligent inquiry in regard to interest payments to-day, and hear of no defaults except one unimportant instance, which will probably be soon arranged. It is extremely gratifying to be able to notice the great promptness of Western Corporations, Counties, &c., in providing for the payment of their interest. KILLED BY THE CARS .- The Watertown Chron cle states that a man by the name of GILLETT, esident of Hubbard, Dodge Co., was killed by the cars last week. He attempted to jump on the train between the tender and first car, while in motion, but fell under the wheels, the whole train passing over him, and he was instantly killed -

I have, therefore, pursued the following course for the lest four years, with uniform success, and being safer and less troublessome than any other,

ing, over any other method of preparation.

Seed should be procured from a responsible source—as much of it is worthless; ("Pitkin's seed" I have always found good); yet I am satisfied that bad management on the part of the purchaser, is often the cause of failure. As regards theere of goods, I do not corn particularly about

He, with his brave three hundred, threw himself in open (skirmishing) order, upon the cavalry of the hostile vanguard, in numbers ten-fold superior to bis own. The charge was perfectly successibly, but, first in attack, last in retreat, he found himself surrounded by some lifty lancers and dragoons. He dealt many a heavy blow, though bleeding from twenty lance wounds, till, his horse being killed under him, he received a share sweed cut across his head, and two more a sharp sword cut heross his head, and two more a shara sword cut across his head, and two more when lying helpless and prostrate—in all, twenty-three wounds. The advancing enemy left him for dead on the field; and for dead he was reported. I paid due tribute to his memory in a general order. One year and a half rolled over our heads, and I was a prisoner of European diplomacy, at Kutahya, when lot one day I received a letter from brave Batorfy, dated Belgrade, reporting himself alive and free, and ready to charge again in spite of his twenty-three wounds. It would be a long tale to tell. Suffice it to know that the hand of God has protected him on the gory field of death. I tarely, in my life, felt a blissful joy like that his letter has caused me. Dr. A. M. Mannes in—My Deart Stir—My with has been perceptibly sinking for somest, ee years or more, in consequence of great angulan and suffering uons months before and during confinement; every successive one mees and more debilinated and prostrated her, putting her life in imment danger, and which was on the last occasion despaired of. I supposed that this state of things was inertiable, and resigned myself to mact the worst. I heard your book highly spoken of, as containing some matters reaching my case. On its receipt and perusal I cannot express, to you the relief it afforded my distracted mind, and the joy, its pages imparted to my wife, on learning that the great discovery of M. M. Desonesaux provided a remedy. Responded a prospect to me which I little conceived was possible. But for this, eve another year would have passed over my head, in all human probability my wife would have been in her grave and my children left motherless.
